Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-35, drawn to a method of identifying a composition with a desired activity, classified in class 435, subclass 4.
- II. Claim 36, drawn to a method of identifying one or more organisms sensitive to a drug treatment, classified in class 435, subclass 4.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are separate and distinct. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are methods directed to different purposes and recite different method steps and use of different products. In addition, the method of each group may be performed without knowledge of or reference to the steps or results of the other method.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, and vice versa, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

If Group I is elected, then the following applies: this application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention as set forth below:

Species A: applicant must elect ONE of the agents recited in claims 5 and 6.

Specie B: applicant must elect ONE of the diseases recited in claim 19.

Specie C: applicant must elect ONE type of response detection from among those claimed and/or disclosed; e.g. as recited in claims 22-26, and 28-29.

(i) If "broad scanning techniques" is elected (claims 22-24), then applicant is further required to pick a single technique from those recited in claims 23-24.

(ii) If "broad scanning techniques" is elected (claims 22-24 and 27), then applicant is further required to elect RNA or protein as the gene product (claims 23-24); if applicant elects protein, then applicant is further required to elect ONE protein from among those recited in claim 27.

If Group II is elected, then it is noted that claim 36 is generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising the following species;

Specie AA: applicant must elect ONE from the biochemical processes disclosed, e.g. on page 5;

Specie BB: applicant must elect ONE from the disease states disclosed; e.g. on page 11.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from Specie A and Specie B and Specie C and subspecies (i) and (ii), if appropriate OR Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from those set forth above, and in the preceding paragraph, for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-3, 7-14, 17, 20-21, and 30-36 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
